

WWCRLD At-a-Glance Strategic Plan

This one-page overview focuses on the questions of What, How, and Why of WWCRLD's 2022-2024 strategic plan.

WHAT actions are being planned by WWCRLD?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Programs and opportunities for community members of all ages, at all locations.</li> <li>• Comprehensive facilities plan to increase accessibility</li> <li>• Focused outreach to partners and underserved communities</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Bilingual communications strategy</li> <li>• Update collection policy to include diverse materials</li> <li>• Periodic needs assessments</li> <li>• Partner to expand broadband internet access</li> <li>• Library technologies that increase accessibility and user experience</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Leading business resources</li> <li>• Programs/tools for entrepreneurs</li> <li>• Relationships with local businesses</li> </ul>
HOW will this be done?
 First Initiative Establish the libraries as community hubs and places for civil discourse, engagement, and lifelong learning.	 Second Initiative Provide equitable access to programs, resources, and services.	 Third Initiative Strengthen economic and community growth.
WHY is this being done?
MISSION: WWCRLD educates and inspires by providing enriching materials and services that are accessible to all, in our buildings, online, and out in the community. VISION: WWCRLD libraries are inviting centers for education, arts, and culture. Representative, knowledgeable staff provide our communities with free access to high quality collections, inspiring programs, and responsive services. We serve as the county's hub for civil discourse and lifelong learning. VALUES: Accessibility, Service Excellence, Intellectual Freedom, Partnerships, Public Trust, Community Investment		